CENT A WORD COLUMN®

WANTED-Foundry Stock Clerk; steady work and good wages to right party. Apply to National Elevator & Machine Co., Honesdale, Pa. 12t2

WE CAN SAVE YOU big money if you wish a Fire and Burglar Proof Safe. Write or call and be astonished at the saving. WYMAN W. KIM-1 mo 2

ATTENTION! The Kimble planing mill is always ready to plane match and rip lumber of any kind. Also estimate on cabinet work. WY-MAN W. KIMBLE. Imo2

FOR SALE-A heating stove, in good condition, suitable for office or Inquire of Mrs. H. Wilson, 307 Fifteenth street. 89tf.

AUCTION SALE-I will sell on Saturday, Feb. 19th, at 1 o'clock p. m., at the Penniman residence on Church street, the following household furniture: Marble top bedroom suit complete: parlor suit, bureaus, hair cloth settee, 2 refrigerators, kitchen cabinet, wardrobe, bedstead, mattress and pillows, crockery, washstand, set of chairs and extra chairs. two-foot extension table and lot of things not mentioned. Terms, cash. A. O. Blake, Auctioneer.

LOCAL MENTION.

One hundred and fifty-six souls were lost on the steamer General Changy in the Mediterranean. Only one survivor, and he was driven to madness by exposure and fright.

-Henry Wilson has given to the Honesdale High school all of his gymnastic paraphernalia that has been in the Exchange Club. The same was moved to the high school gymnasium Friday afternoon.

"Well, how true it is," sighs the visitor, "that one-half the world doesn't know how the other "That may be true of the world in general," replied the na-"But it doesn't apply to this town."

churches and any of the congregation who are willing to join the revival choir, are invited to meet Rev Mr. Wendell in the Sunday school rooms of the M. E. church this (Wednesday) evening, Feb. 16th, at 8:30 p. m.

-Miss Lila A. Stewart, a young lady well known in Honesdale, conducted a kirmess in Los Angeles, Cal., early last week. She has been greatly successful in this description of entertainments. She gave one in our borough several years ago that netted a neat sum.

On Friday morning Miss Sara L. Box was united in marriage to Harold W. Smith by Rev. A. L. Whittaker. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both residents of White Mills where they will make their future home, the groom being employed in the glass works at that place.

-Prof. Dooley was in town on Saturday and called at the Citizen office. He is very much pleased with the attendance at his school, and is proud of the scholars' punctual attendance, which is remarkable when the heavy snow storms and taken into consideration.

On Tuesday evening at the High school gymnasium, one of the fastest games of basket ball seen in this place in some time, was played. The Honesdale Stars and Bolhagen's Cubs, after some two years of arguing, finally came together and the Cubs went down in defeat to the tune of 25 to 11. Schuerholz and Vetter starred for the victors, while Polt captured the laurels for the Cubs. R. M. Salmon refereed the -Model orchards will be conducted in the rural districts of this part of the state according to the lists made public by H. A. Surface, State economic zoologist. The orchards will be in charge of experts sent out from Harrisburg. The publie meeting orchards in Wayne county are W. J. P. Warwick, Inglehart; Bros., Waymart; F. H. Curtis, Waymart; J. U. Stanton, Waymart; C. year A. Masters, Gravity; F. C. Dietrich, Aldenville; Harvey Emery, Gravity; F. W. Osgood, Ariel.

-The ladies of the Presbyterian church are working hard to make Robbins of Carbondale, will preach Pennsylvania, and are well fortified the annual Martha Washington supper the usual success. Arrangements The children's service will be ten will enable them to make successful are being made to number the "Sup- minutes earlier than the appointed issue with their fellow members of per tickets." One hundred and eight will be accommodated at the first Tuesday afternoon at five minutes table. After that, by watching the past four. There will be a service land, who represented Wayne county record board," each may know on Thursday at 4:15 p. m. when his or her time comes. All and down the main stairway. First table at 5:30. The usual sale of food received ten cents per pound or September Berkshire pigs and were $100 a month. fattened on corn and milk, both of which were produced on Mr. Pomper three-bushel barrel.

-Katz Brothers' new spring advertisement appears in to-day's license to sell liquor in this county opera house at Port Jervis, have been broke every house record previously German Lutheran church, of which Citizen.

-Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold next at 3 p. m.

ter Keeler, both of Honesdale, are recent accessions to the ranks of Co. E.

ier Vic Decker, and Hardware Man Swift. W. W. Watts, of Hawley, have purchased automobiles

-The Honesdale Stars journeyed to Milford Saturday evening and ended the game of basket ball in a dispute with the score 28 to 28.

-Miss Clara R. Torrey gave a C. Mills, of Brookline, Mass., was the for a rapid recovery. guest of honor

Feb. 18th. Dunmore walloped Carbondale last week to the tune of 20 to S

-Dick Nallin, who played first base for the Honesdale team at one time, has signed to play with the Frederick (Md.) team. He has been playing with the Tri-State and Atlantic Leagues.

county, died at his home at Herrick to the polls to select servants Center on Wednesday of last week, serve them in the various townships relatives. His funeral was held on Saturday, at and borough offices for the next few the home. Burial took place in the years. Methodist cemetery at Pleasant Mount making their appearance. measure 3 % x5 inches; are of a light containing the profile of William Mc- torney. Kinley.

Sunday, Feb. 20th: Holy Commun-ville Tuesday evening, Feb. 22d. If ion at 8 a. m.; morning prayer and the weather is stormy, the supper sermon, at 10:30 a. m.; admission will be postponed until the hood of St. Andrew at 10:30 p. m. All are invited.

The will of Miss Laura Cannon, the well-known woman lawyer of Wilkes-Barre, who died last week from injuries sustained in an automobile accident, was probated on -The choirs of all the Protestant | Wednesday. She left an estate valued at $80,000.

-We have on our desk a McIntosh Captain Kelley has several sites in red apple, grown in Oregon, which is view. wrapped in waxed paper and brings a price which would make a Wayne of county farmer happy. This apple is no better, if as good, as the apples we grow here at home, and sell for about one-third the price.

week a car-load of the old govern- ping fifteen feet. Men and horses ment books, which were formerly used in the old High school library, double-sleigh was wrecked. were shipped back to the Congressional department at Washington.

D. & H. train met with a mishap at Fortenia, by the breaking of a part of the engine. The crew were obliged to return to Honesdale, secure anjourney to Carbondale, making the passengers several hours late in reaching their destination.

favored the congregations of the marital career. Methodist and Presbyterian congregations with several entertainments of rare enjoyment last year, is to drifts which block the roads, are fill the position, at an early date, in the choir of St. Peter's German Lu-tion Agent Knapp's assistants, was theran church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

memorial mass for deceased members at the St. John's Catholic church on Sunday morning, Feb. 3. Father Thos. M. Hanley was the cel-There was special music and the council attended in a body. crease his responsibilities to a still Paul Sonner, violinist, assisted Mrs. Richtmeyer, who presided at the organ. Mr. John Carroll rendered a solo.

-At the Horticultural show Tunkhannock there was a number of sample boxes of apples from the famous apple growing districts of the states of Washington and Oregon, and it was the consensus of opinion that Wayne county apples were superior as to taste and equally as good in looks. Yet some of the acres Charles McKinney, Gravity; Hull where these apples grew yielded a revenue from $500 to $900 per > -Rev. S. D. Day, of Forest City, will be the special preacher at Grace had a most excellent tutelage in law, Feb. 16th, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. H. E. lenced barristers of this section of on Friday, Feb. 18, at 7:30 p. m. with knowledge and experiences that time, for this week only, namely, the bar.

who dine will pass up the auditorium ledge, of South Canaan, who served very interesting paper on "The Conduring the Spanish war in Cuba, re- dition of our Rural Schools." turned home, enlisted in the regufrom the "Bakery" will be postponed are army at Columbus, Ohio, and the bone of the school system and until the Saturday before Easter. went to Mt. Kinley, Manila, P. I. that all educators agreed that Simon Pomroy, of Creamton, Two years ago he received an honor- consolidation of the schools would Mt. Pleasant township, took to mar- able discharge from his regiment and solve the problem. The laws are ket on Tuesday ten fall hogs and he entered a government bureau at more to blame than anything else Manila, where he has charge of a de- for the present condition of affairs, $132.10 for the bunch. They were partment and receives a salary of especially the law in regard to dis-

Wilkes-Barre, who is well known in ed on the number of schools. This roy's farm excepting three hundred Honesdale, had a narrow escape has served to multiply small schools elaborate stage equipment as charpounds of feed. It pays even to from death, and Orville A. Henry, a and keep them in existence. raise fall pigs, provided you have client for whom Mr. Sherwood had Simons also denied that there were for them a warm shelter, such as recently secured a $5,000 verdict for any greater superstitions in the coun-Mr. Pomroy provides for his swine. injuries received in the American try than in the cities. He said the He has two of the flock left. On Car and Foundry company at Ber- advertisements in city papers of pow Wednesday, the following day, he wick, and Mrs. Henry and a young wow doctors, clairvoyants, magic shipped from Prompton forty bar-child, were probably fatally injured healings, fortune tellers and various rels of winter apples to a Scranton when they jumped from the third charlatans and quacks showed that sustomer for which he received $2.25 story of a burning hotel in Washing- city people are as easily taken in as the morbid element that find their ton, D. C., last Friday morning.

-The number of applications for number seventy-four.

-The names of the jurors for the service in White Mills on Sunday March term of court have been as circulation manager of the Scran- year in New York, packed and jam--William Henry Reed and Dex- publish the same in our later edition. tion. His successor is Miss Mame E.

-The Rev. H. G. Coenen, pastor of the Lutheran church, will speak in the Presbyterian church next Sun--Ex-Sheriff Dick Murphy, Cash- day evening by invitation of Dr.

-Paul Vaverchauk is a new applicant for a licence for a botel to be located in Canaan township. This makes seventy-four applications for licenses.

-James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Blakney, has an attack of diphtheria, luncheon on Monday afternoon to but we are glad to be able to ansome twenty of her friends. Mrs. E. nounce that the indications are good was in Honesdale recently.

-Mrs. Isaac Steelman is stopping a -The Dunmore High school bas- with her parents on Ridge street, ket ball team will play the Hones- and is caring for Miss Jennie Ball, latter part of last week in Scranton. dale High school team on Friday, who was scalded by escaping steam, while preparing a meal.

> -Our Indian Orchard corres- ria. pondent has an account of the Pomona Grange meeting, held at that ed Saturday and Sunday in Honesplace last week. The letter can be dale found on the eighth page.

-To-day (Tuesday) as we go to press, the sovereign people all over evening. -Peter Stanton, a native of Wayne the county are wending their way

-The White Mills Camp of Mod- in town. ern Woodman of America are incor-The new postal cards are just parating in order that they might Prompton, was a caller in Honesdale They take title to the property at White Saturday. Mills, known as the Florence Theablue tint, printed in bronze blue ink. tre, which they have purchased. The stamp on the card is an ellipse Chester A. Garratt, Esq., is their at-

An oyster supper will be held -Services at Grace church on at the Presbyterian church at Rileyservice and address to the Brother- pleasant evening. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the pastor's salary.

> The L. S. G. club will enjoy a sleigh ride to Hawley this evening. -General Doubleday is expected to visit our borough within the next few days to select a site for Company E's new armory, which is to be built go to New York this week to remain

Sunday evening a sleigh-load in this place. young men, consisting of John H. Weaver, Jr., A. J. Coleman, Otto Weaver and William Schilling, went over an embankment somewhere on the road between White Mills and On Wednesday morning of last Hawley. They piled up after drop-were only slightly injured, but the

-It will be pleasant news to the many friends of William C. Bea, of The out-going Sunday evening Hawley, to learn that the last time he been visiting friends for several morning, February 7th, at his home visited his home, which was last days. week, he brought with him a charming young bride from Stapleton. Staten Island. They were accompanother engine and proceed on their jed by the bride's parents and the party was given a royal reception in Hawley. Mr. Bea is a popular drug salesman and has a legion of friends -Miss Tydvil Jones, of Scranton, in this city, who wish both him and the well known talented singer, who his bride best wishes for a happy

William Brown, formerly Scranton, but lately employed at the Erie Railroad depot, as one of Stagranted a leave of absence for ten days, under such peculiar circum--The Knights of Columbus had a stances that is thought by many of his associates and intimate friends that he contemplates taking a new departure in his method of living which will double up his expenses and cares, and eventually may inhas the well wishes of his many friends, that his future may be Mary or Rosie.

Searle & Salmon is the name of the new firm which was formed this week for the general practice of the The partners are Charles P. Searle, son of Judge A. T. Searle, and R. Milton Salmon, son of H. S. Salmon, Cashier of the Wayne County Savings Bank. Both are young men, college graduates and are well versed in the law. Mr. Salmon is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, while Mr. Searle is a graduate of Amherst College. Both have Episcopal church on Wednesday, and under some of the most exper-

-Dr. A. J. Simons, of Newfoundat the recent convention of school -George W., son of John Rut- directors held at Harrisburg, read a He claimed the small rural school was tributing the State appropriation. -Attorney Paul J. Sherwood, of One-third of the distribution is bastheir country cousins.

accepted -W. J. Silverstone has resigned drawn from the wheel, and we will ton Tribune-Republican for this sec-Igo.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Lee Stanton is spending a few days in Scranton

Miss Eva Griffin, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town.

William Mathey, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town.

few days in Carbondale. Mrs. Charles Baker, of Waymart,

Reuben Brown recently spent a

Jos. Jacob returned Monday from business trip to Scranton.

Miss Sadie Spettigue spent the Mr. Charles Silsby is ill at his home on West street, with diphthe-from New York City on Sunday actor of unusual ability.

John Morgan, of Carbondale, pass-

Miss Ida Gay, of Blakeley, Lackawanna county, is visiting Honesdale Miss Sarah Cortright, of Carbondale, is visiting friends and relatives Miss Frances Richardson, urday from a visit with Scranton relatives. John D. Weston left Saturday af- Orchard cemetery yesterday. ternoon for a few days' stay in New York city. Honesdale.

Miss Lizzie Brady left Tuesday to spend a few days with her sister in Carbondale.

Mrs. Sowdon Evans, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting her son Frank, of West street.

The Misses Weiss, of Park street. soon as the weather will permit, until spring.

Earl Gager, of Scranton, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends

Miss Hattie Arnold passed the latter part of last week with Wilkes-Barre friends. E. G. Simons, manager of the Bell Telephone Co., of Scranton, is in town this week. Miss Emma Dornheim and Miss Pearl Murray spent Sunday at their on Wednesday.

nome in Scranton. Miss Etta Neilsen has returned from Newark, N. J., where she has berg, aged 43 years, died on Monday did not complain of being ill during Winnie Mumford, of Carbondale, arrived Monday to make a short visit with his father, L. O. Mumford, of Dyberry

Miss Frances Demer entertained the H. G. C. club and friends at her on River street on Monday evening. J. J. McCarty, circulation mana ger of the Tribune-Republican, of Scranton, was a business caller in town last week. Joseph Witt left Sunday for Mida position in one of the large breweries at that place. Mrs. James Monaghan, who has been at the Hahnemann Hospital greater extent. He is well liked and at Scranton for several weeks, has returned to her home again. Miss Bessie McGinniss and niece, Mary Dix, have returned to their Rochester home after a few weeks visit with Honesdale relatives. Miss Blanche Evans, who has been spending the past month with her brother, Frank, returned to her home in Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday.

Miss Josephine Schuager left yesterday for her home in Wilkes-Barre after spending several days with her friend, Miss Marie Ward, of Park

Dr. W. A. Smith, of Chester, Pa., who has been visiting at the home of E. C. Clark, of Cliff street, for several days, returned to his home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Frank W. Tibbetts, of Germantown, has returned to her home after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wood and sister, Mrs. O. M. Spettigue, Jr.

Angus M. Lawyer, who has been spending a few days with his parents here, left Sunday for New York, where he has accepted a good position in the auditing department of the Custom House.

"THE THIRD DEGREE."

Again Honesdale is to Have a High-Priced Play.

The most startling dramatic sensation of the present season and one by the author of that former startler, "The Lion and the Mouse," is "The Third Degree" which, with the same Dr. acterized the former, comes to Honesdale on Wednesday, Feb. 23rd, for one night under the management of Henry B. Harris, who also produced

The Lion and the Mouse.' Without a single improper line this play has succeeded by reason of its virility, and without appealing to greatest theatrical entertainment in

-H. F. Weaver's plans for the new off-color plays, "The Third Degree" Laurella, and at 2 o'clock from the established, and even through the Lenten season, the worst in all the med the big Hudson Theatre when many of the other houses had closed for this period. It is no more than fitting that the man who wrote "The Lion and the another play that is even greater than its famous pregecessor-the story of how a young girl, unaided and alone, with nothing to assist fights single handed against the nowerful influence of the police and wins.

Marion Kerby, in the role of the girl, illustrates the highest reach of emotional acting, and that the selecting of Miss Kerby for this part was a master-stroke for Mr. Harris, the producer, was best shown by the excellent criticisms accorded her work.

Alfred Moore, about whom little can be said that is not already known, in the part of Captain Clinton, who, with tireless energy for seven long hours, subjects his victim to a torture that can only be compared with those of the Spanish Inquisition, H. Z. Russell and wife returned again demonstrates his value as an

> The sale of seats for this remarkable drama will begin on Feb. 21st.

OBITUARY.

DOLOWAY-Mrs. George Doloway, aged twenty-five years, died at and was advised by Proprietor her home near Indian Orchard, Saturday morning after a short illness. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Katz returned Sat- Mrs. George Gregory and is also survived by two sisters and a brother. Interment was made in the Indian fast was brought to him in his room;

REYNOLDS-Sidney F. Harriet Lewis, of Rye, N. Y., is nolds of Damascus, died Friday at spending a few days with friends in the home of his sister, Mrs. Olive Wilson on Main street. He war47 years of age, unmarried. The funeral was held at Calkins on Sunday at 1 p. m. A brief service was held at the home of Mrs. Wilson on Saturday evening, Rev. A. L. Whittaker officiating.

> AUSTIN-William Austin, aged 21 years, a life long resident of White Mills, died Sunday night at his home. He was a splendid fellow. quiet and unassuming, and had many friends who mourn their loss. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Austin, two brothers, J. Monroe and Erastus, all of White Mills; three sisters, Mrs. Emily Brown and Mrs. Wesley Watson, both of Middletown, N. Y., and Mrs. William Forest, of Bloomfield, N. J. The funeral will be held at I o'clock from the house

RODENBERG-Lewis Rodenin Lookout, from diabetes and gener-Miss Jennie Drum has returned to al debility. He was a man of excelher home in New York City, after lent character, very much devoted spending some time with relatives to his family, and highly respected by his neighbors. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, who was family had made arrangements to formerly Miss Agnes Maudsley, and have all the children come home to six children, namely, Mrs. Ford Dailey, of Western Pennsylvania; 84th natal day with him. Not until Lena, Ella, Mary, Anna and Chester, their arrival Monday evening did at home; also three sisters, Mrs. the children learn of his sudden de-Swendsen, of Lookout; Mrs. George mise. Mr. Mackle was born Young, of Kellam; and Mrs. Amsey Appley, of Damascus.

Laurella, died on Sunday morning wagons and conducted a general at his home, from a complication of blacksmithing business in Seelyville diseases. He was born in Hones- for many years. He was a very dletown, N. Y., where he has accepted dale and was 61 years of age. He quiet, unassuming man respected by had resided at Laurella for 26 years, everyone. His wife died 17 years and was one of Wayne county's pro- ago. A large family of children gressive farmers. He leaves a wife survive as follows: Mrs. Conrad Fosand four children, namely: Mrs. Bert ter, Mrs. Melvin Cole and Stephen. Dain, Mrs. Wm. Garrett, and Jacob, all of Hancock, N. Y.; Mrs. E. Bruce of Honesdale, and William. of Jer- Walker, of Oneonta, N. Y.; Mrv. Geo. myn. The deceased is also survived Waidler, of New York city; Jacob by one brother, Jacob, of this place, and Elizabeth, at Seelyville; and a sister, Mrs. Henry Dirlam, of George, at Fortenia. The funeral Cherry Ridge. The funeral will be will be held from the house this held at 1 o'clock from the house at (Wednesday) afternoon.

he was a member, on Wednesday.

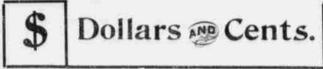

STANTON-Peter Stanton of Herrick Center, passed away on February 2d, succumbing to an attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Stanton was taken ill January 8th, with typhold fever. All that careful nurs-Mouse" should come back and write ing could do was done, but of no avail. Just before the end he called for his pastor and told him he was ready to go. Mr. Stanton was born in Whites Valley on March 8, 1859, her but a woman's wit and ingenuity, and spent the greater part of his life there. Twenty years ago moved to Olyphant, and from there came to Susquebanna county. is survived by his wife and a large family to mourn the loss of husband and father, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. McElroy, of Winton berough; Warren Stanton, of Blakely borough; Mr. and Mrs. Millard, Archbald; Mr. and Mrs. Huddy, Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Blaker, Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanton, Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, Archbald; Edward, Ployd, Mrs. Dennis, Lillie, Frank, Raymond and Charles, at home. The funeral services were held at the house on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Buck. Interment was made in the M. E. cemetery at Pleasant Mount.

RESIDE-John Reside, aged

66 years, died suddenly at Hotel Wayne on Monday afternoon. was not feeling well on Saturday. Weaver to stop work and go to bed. No serious symptoms appeared and it was thought that he needed only rest in order to recuperate. Monday morning at his request breaka few bours afterwards he was found dead and it is thought he exnired from a stroke of apoplexy. Deceased was born in Andes, New York, and had resided in Honesdale for over thirty years. Very little is known of his early life, as he was incommunicative. been a hard worker, following the trade of painter for many years. He had the contract some years ago to repair and paint the weather vane and steeple of the Methodist church here, a very hazardous job, which he performed very satisfactorily. He is known to have one brother living in New York state and Landlord Weaver at once took measures to reach him with the news of his brother's death. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Hotel Wayne, and interment will be made in the Riverside cemetery.

MACKLE-Stephen Mackle, a well known and highly respected citizen of Seelyville, died at the home of his son, Mackle, on Sunday evening. the the day and retired as usual It was his custom to drink a bowl of milk before going to sleep. He drank the milk, gave a gasp and passed away. He would have been 84 years old on Tuesday and the surprise their father and spend his Germany and for 44 years has been a resident of Seelyville. Four years were spent at Fortenia. Mr. Mackle HOEFNER-John Hoefner, of was a wheelwright by trade and built ly solicit the accounts of Individuals or Firms, either for Savings or Checking

A FRIEND OF THE

As a matter of pusiness we carnest-

Farmer, Mechanic, Merchant,

Manufacturer, Laborer and Professional man

п п п

Money loaned to parties having reliable

11 11 11

Safe deposit boxes for rent in our fireproof vault. . . .

When in Honesdale do not fail to give us a call at the corner of Tenth and Main street.

Farmers & Mechanics Bank